

ENV DEGREE

BS ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES + AB ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES AND POLICY

---

Gain broad understanding of natural and social sciences critical to solving environmental issues

Acquire in-depth knowledge in your chosen sub-discipline

Graduate with skills and experience employers and advanced degree programs are seeking

---

40% of our students are double majors

---

HALLMARK ELEMENTS

- Small size classes
- Graduation with Distinction
- Research/independent study
- Study at Duke University Marine Lab
  - Field-oriented courses
- Stanback Fellowship Program

POTENTIAL CAREERS YOU COULD HAVE WITH THIS DEGREE

Conservation Specialist
Ecotoxicologist
Energy Advisor/Analyst
Environmental Health Specialist
Environmental Lawyer
Environmental Manager
Environmental Scientist
GIS

Medical Doctor
Natural Resource Manager
Policymaker
Project/Program Consultant
Research Associate
Sustainability Director
Science Teacher
Veterinarian

WHERE OUR ALUMS WORK

Colleges and universities
U.S. Department of Justice
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
Hospitals and global health institutions
K-12 schools
Law firms
NOAA

Nonprofit organizations
Private consulting firms
State and national park services
National Institute of Environmental Health
Municipal, state and federal government

LEARN MORE

AMY KIRKLAND
Undergraduate Program Coordinator
amy.kirkland@duke.edu
(919) 613-8060

PRASAD KASIBHATLA
Director of Undergraduate Studies
(DUS), ENV
psk9@duke.edu
(919) 613-8075

 /DukeEnvironment

 @dukeenvironment

 @DukeEnvironment

ONLINE

nicholas.duke.edu/academics/undergraduate-programs

Duke

NICHOLAS SCHOOL
of the ENVIRONMENT