

LEADING THE CHANGE SPEAKER SERIES

Exploring ways to enact organizational change and prepare you for your chosen career.

Duke | NICHOLAS SCHOOL of the ENVIRONMENT

COMMUNITY CONVERSATION: ELECTION 2020

THE MECHANICS OF AN ELECTION

Do you have questions about the upcoming election? How does the political process work? In what ways is 2020 different from prior presidential elections? Join Megan Mullin, Associate Professor of Environmental Politics and ask your questions in this open conversation.

Thursday, October 22, 2020 | 7:00 p.m. – 8:15 p.m. EDT

Megan Mullin, Associate Professor of Environmental Politics

Register: <http://duke.is/WAFWZT>

Brought to you by the following Nicholas School partners:

Leading the Change Faculty and Staff Work Group
Career and Professional Development Center
Office of Development and Alumni Relations
Board of Visitors – Business and Professional Development Committee