

DukeImmerse – Oceans, Humans and Environmental Health Registration
Fall 2019

Registrations will be accepted on a rolling basis until all of the slots are filled or until the final date of April 3, 2019. Please send to Dana Hunt (dana.hunt@duke.edu) and Katie Wood (katie.wood@duke.edu) Registration is complete with Professor Hunt's confirmation. Please note that the Duke Immerse program is for Duke undergraduates only.

Full Name:

Year:

Major(s), minor(s), and certificate(s) declared or intended:

Hometown:

Duke Unique ID:

Duke Student ID:

Preferred email address:

Travel experience (including before Duke):

1. Please describe your interest in DukeImmerse and what do you hope to gain/ learn (200 words max).

2. What was your most memorable or important travel experience, including within the United States (200 words max)?

3. How will your previous experiences and background contribute to this DukeImmerse semester (200 words max)

4. Do you have a valid passport? (From what country) Do you have any special circumstances or concerns regarding international travel? Students may be required to get immunizations prior to travel. Please contact dana.hunt@duke.edu if you are undocumented or have other restrictions and would like to discuss alternatives to international travel.

DukeImmerse – Oceans, Humans and Environmental Health Registration
Fall 2019

5. Before August 2019, will you have completed Introductory Biology and Chemistry courses? (Introductory courses are preferred but not required)

6. What other relevant background courses/ research experiences do you have that may contribute to this class?

Note: Participants are required to pay a program fee of $1,000. This fee covers all program costs, including airfare for both the domestic and international trips. Financial aid packages may be used to cover these costs, please email financial aid if you have any questions (finaid@duke.edu).